Information Concerning Gadolinium Contrast Material

As part of your examination, the radiologist may deem it advisable to give you an I.V. injection of a contrast agent containing gadolinium. This injection may help the physician more accurately diagnose your condition. Although gadolinium contrast agents have been used safely in millions of cases, minor reactions (principally headache or nausea) occur in about 2% of patients, whereas serious or life-threatening reactions have been reported in about one in 400,000

- Yes No Have you ever had a previous allergic reaction to gadolinium contrast material?
- Yes No Do you have a history of asthma or emphysema?

I attest that the answers I have provided to questions on this form are correct to the best of my knowledge. I have read and understand the entire contents of this form and have had the opportunity to ask questions regarding the information on this form.
